

Resource list for home learning – French

Website Link	Brief Overview
https://www.memrise.com/	Free – includes online videos of native speakers with questions.
https://www.duolingo.com/	Website with lots of vocab building and listening activities - also available as an app (paid options, but base content always free)
https://www.rosettastone.com/freeforstudents/	Language-learning website - free at the moment.
https://quizlet.com/subject/ks2-french/	Flashcards for practising already-learnt vocab.
https://www.thisislanguages.com/	Videos, exercises and games (free until June if you email them)
https://conjuguemos.com/	Fun language activities and games – sign up for free https://stories.audible.com/discovery/enterprise-discovery-21122523011?ref=adbl_ent_anon_ds_ds_dccs_sbtp-0-6	Audible books available in French language (even if your child does not understand, it's great to listen to identify sounds or even fall asleep to!) Go to section - À écouter en français http://madeleineeditions.com/fr/stories/	Beautiful, immersive bilingual stories in French/English with lovely animations! Highly recommended https://www.senecalearning.com/	Online activities
www.languagesonline.org.uk	Matching activities and games
https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/subjects/z39d7ty	BBC Bitesize website French https://www.lightbulblanguages.co.uk/	Free teaching resources – will require a good level of French to teach your child https://www.facebook.com/groups/2073588669595887/	Free Facebook group that has clips with subtitles.
https://lyricstraining.com/fr/	Popular French music videos with the lyrics underneath to help with pronunciation. (Please vet the content of the videos first, as they are from YouTube so may not be age appropriate.
https://www.french-games.net/	A variety of games based on familiar topics.
https://www.topmarks.co.uk/Search.aspx?q=french	Fun, free games for home learning.
https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/subjects/z39d7ty	Lots of grammar-based games activities from BBC website.
http://www.crickweb.co.uk/ks2french.html	Activities featuring colours, numbers and topics covered in school.